

ESWARAMMA

Eswaramma is 34 year old women who although married her husband used to torture her and now he left her. She is living alone in the village with her two children. Her parents are also not taking care of her.

She use to go for daily wage work and living with struggle everyday for livelihood as she is unable to speak. She is exploited in the work by virtue of her disability. However with grit and determination she is working hard for growing her children. After ROH fieldstaff identified her she has been facilitated with medical certificate and pension from government given to the disabled persons. She is getting training in Tailoring and applying in Garments factory coming up in Parigi. At present she is also earning by helping the senior tailors in the shop and once she completes the training she can get upto 1500-1600 and ROH will facilitate loan for her to get cow or buffalo so that it would fetch additional income for her. Although at loss with her own conditions she presents a face of determination and self-confidence to overcome her current hard phase and ROH wishes to see her stand on her legs soon. She folds her hands in response to the donor's help.
