

NAGAMMA-CHOWDAMMA-LAXMI

Namma, Laxmi and Chowdamma are disabled women aged 18-20 years living in Parigi, Kallumari & Mothukapallu respectively. They were uneducated and relegated to living at home without any income opportunity. Everybody neglected them.

In this condition ROH identified them and asked them to attend interviews at the Parigi Mandal Revenue Office, for selection into a training program to impart income-generating skills. ROH selected them for their courses on Basket making, Home Appliances repairs and Electronic Products Assembly respectively. They were trained through a systematic schedule in 1999.

After completion of training they were given tool kits and certificates. ROH helped them in availing credit facility from Banks and they got US $107 each. Today, each of them is an independent and self-reliant income earner, living their lives with dignity and pride. All three of them have also repaid the loan they had taken from the bank.
